PUBLIC POLICY FAQ

When can I apply for public policy funding?

Applications are accepted January 1 – March 1 for review at our November board meeting.

How do I know if my public policy organization would be a good partner with the Foundation?

We fund public policy organizations that:

- Enhance understanding of the free enterprise system
- Preserve the principles upon which our democracy was founded to help ensure a limited role for government and the protection of individual rights as provided for in the Constitution
- Encourage personal responsibility and leadership
- Uphold traditional American values

How long is the review process?

Review typically takes about eight months after the application deadline.
